SACRAMENTS

Baptism: Please call the parish office to schedule a baptism. You must be a registered and contributing member of the parish to have your child receive this sacrament.

Anointing of the sick: This sacrament is available upon request by calling the parish office. Please do not wait until it becomes an emergency because a priest will not always be immediately available.

Parish News

PASTOR'S CORNER by: Fr. Chris

Welcome to our second week in Ordinary Time, and as we can see in our Gospel reading from John, there is something not so ordinary. As we read this Gospel passage we find that it is the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, and not only that, it is the first of Jesus' miracles. And still further, we are called to notice how the Church, however small she was, was all gathered there at this wedding when the wine was about to run out.

There have been many comparisons made about the Wedding Feast at Cana, but the one which I would like to point out is the comparison of the wedding with the Church. We notice that the wine was about to run out, and we are called to notice that is the end of an era, and with the good wine a new era is to begin; we can compare it to the end of the Old Covenant and the beginning of the New. (Yet Christ did not come to abolish the Old, but to fulfill it.) We notice how His hour has not yet come, but there were jars for ceremonial washings used for purification rituals; today we have Baptism and Confession. The new wine of course has Eucharistic overtones and Jesus is seen as the bridegroom with the Church being His bride. The Catechism of the Catholic Church also makes note of this comparison when it says in number 789,

The comparison of the Church with the body casts light on the intimate bond between Christ and His Church. Not only is she gathered around Him; she is united in Him, in His body. Three aspects of the Church as the Body of Christ are to be more specifically noted: the unity of all her members with each other as a result of their union with Christ; Christ as head of the Body; and the Church as the bride of Christ.

May we all grow in a deeper appreciation for our Bridegroom and what He does for His Bride throughout this coming year. God Bless,

Fr. Chris

Sick List: Please keep the following people in your prayers: Fr. Joe, Jody Mittlestaedt, Rick Loof, Duane Tomajcik, Kristy (Schnabel) Witt, Dan Vignali, George Lawrie, Millie Martin, Bernie Ineichen, Helen Marie Ziesemer.

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? - Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. For confidential information about or to register for the program beginning with a weekend on February 12-14, 2016, call 877-922-HOPE, or visit the website: www.HelpOurMarriage.com

Pine Crest Nursing Home Mass change: Throughout the month of January, Deacon Jim will be celebrating a Word & Communion Service at 10:15 AM every Thursday at Pine Crest Nursing Home instead of Mass. However, beginning in February, Fr. Chris will celebrate Mass on the 1st & 3rd Thursdays at 10:30 AM. Deacon Jim will celebrate Word & Communion Services and the 2nd & 4th Thursdays at 10:30 AM. This schedule will continue for the foreseeable future.

Attention Eucharistic Ministers: As discussed in our training session last fall, part of your duties as Eucharistic Ministers is to stay after Mass for 5 minutes and help clean the sacred vessels. We no longer wish for the altar servers to preform this important task. Thank you.

Prayer Buddies: This year our Confirmation and First Communion students have been paired up as "Buddies" and will be corresponding with each other and also doing an activity together. We would like to invite the parishioners to be a part of this special year by praying for them. Located in the back of church (parish communication center board) is a poster with pictures and names of our Confirmandi and First Communicants. Behind their pictures are prayer cards with their names on the cards. You may take one of these cards and pray for them throughout this year with the intention that they will grow in their faith. There is more detailed information on the poster.

Keep Christ in Christmas

St. Francis students in grades K thru 8 participated in the Knights of Columbus poster contest. The theme was "Keep Christ in Christmas." Three posters were selected to move on to the district competition. These posters will be used for advertising for the Knights of Columbus fishing tournament. They were created by Makyah Goetsch - 8th grade, Bobbi Ann Gerbig - 4th grade and Lilly Hoffman - 1st grade (pictured with Patti Gessler, art teacher). Each grade had a first place winner selected also. Those winners are: Kindergarten - Ben Hanson, 1st Grade - Jacob Shimel, 2nd Grade - Owen Meehan, 3rd Grade - Molly White, 4th Grade - Sam Nelson, 5th Grade - Macey Jo Weix, 6th Grade - Shayla Swan, 7th Grade - Rebecca Rell and 8th Grade - Ava Cohrs. Congratulations to everyone for their participation and great artwork!!

From the Holy Father's General Audience: Wednesday, January 13, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In this Jubilee Year, our weekly catechesis will explore the mystery of divine mercy. In the Book of Exodus, God defines himself as the God of mercy. In words which echo throughout the Old Testament, he tells Moses that he is "the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness" (Ex 34:6). The Hebrew word for mercy evokes the tender and visceral love of a mother for her child. The God of mercy is also gracious, ever ready to understand and forgive. He is slow to anger, prepared to wait patiently, like a wise farmer, for the seeds of repentance to grow in our hearts. Likewise, he abounds in steadfast love and faithfulness. God's love, freely given, precedes any merit on our part; his faithfulness, like that of the father in the parable of the prodigal son, has no limits. He waits for us, ever ready to forgive our sins and to welcome us back to a right relationship with him. In this Year of Mercy, may we turn to God with all our heart, trusting in his mercy and grace, his infinite faithfulness and love.

Eucharistic Adoration Got Stress? Get Peace! By: Katie Warner

Do any of these sound familiar?

- Sometimes it seems like there isn't enough of you to go around.
- You tend to worry about problems that don't even end up happening.
- You often second-guess decisions you have made or actions you have taken and think about ways you could have made or done them differently.
- You don't always trust God to take care of you completely.
- The problems you face during the day can drain you of energy.
- You sometimes find it hard to relax, because you are thinking about tasks you must complete or problems you are facing at home or at work.

If you are finding yourself saying "YES!" Then come visit Jesus at Eucharistic Adoration. He is waiting for you.

The Liturgy Committee would like to teach us about the Saints of the day and special feast days:

Sunday: Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: Martin Luther King, Jr. Day;
Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins
Tuesday: Julian Calendar Theophany (Epiphany)
Wednesday: St. Fabian; St. Sebastian
Thursday: St. Agnes
Friday: Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children
Saturday: St. Vincent; St. Marianne Cope; Blessed Virgin Mary

We have an abundance of dishes in the back of Church by the elevator. If you donated a dish for a funeral lunch please take your dish before February 1. After that date they will be donated to St. Vinnie's.

Lenten Fish Fries Begin February 12th

Lent is only 4 weeks away! That means it is time for us to start preparing for our fish fries. Sign up sheets are already in the entry way to church by door #2. Check your calendars and see where you can help out. We need cooks, waitresses, delivery drivers, people to cut deserts, people to bus tables, and a clean up crew. If you aren't available Fridays there are plenty of jobs for you to do during the week as well. If you have any questions, please call Julie Mootz at 715-536-9769. Fish Fries run from February 12-March 25, 2016.

St. John the Baptist News

Thursday Mass time: Beginning on Thursday, February 4, Thursday morning Mass will begin at 9:00 AM. This change is being made because Fr. Chris and Deacon Jim will be celebrating Mass and Word & Communion Services at Pine Crest Nursing Home on Thursday mornings at 10:30 AM.

SCRIP is here! Sandy Tank is now volunteering as our SCRIP seller after Sunday Mass. She has County Market, Piggly Wiggly, Wal-Mart, Walgreen's, Fleet Farm, Kwik Trip, Holiday, McDonald's and Friendship House available. If you would like to have something else ready for you, please call Kris in the parish office during the week. Sandy will have it ready for you on Sunday. Remember SCRIP is a fundraiser for our catholic school that costs you no extra money.

As we continue on our journey during this Jubilee Year of Mercy we would like to review Corporal Works of Mercy. These are acts by which we help our neighbors with their material and physical needs: Feed the hungry, Give drink to the thirsty, Clothe the naked, Welcome the stranger, Heal the sick, Visit the imprisoned, Bury the dead. What corporal Work of Mercy can your family do?

For more information on "What is a Year of Mercy?", "what is a Jubilee Year?", and "What are Corporal Works of Mercy?" visit our website: www.stfrancismerrill.org

Thank you to the parishioners who continue to donate "Living Faith" daily devotionals to our parish. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

SCRIP News....

It has happened to many of us committed SCRIP users. You find yourself making a purchase without having SCRIP!
