Parish News

PASTOR'S CORNER by: Fr. Chris

On this third Sunday of Easter, we continue our Gospel reading from the Gospel of John. It is a classic story from his 21st chapter. And as I had mentioned last week, this 21st chapter is believed to have been a later addition to this Gospel. Whether this chapter is written by the author or it is from a school of his thought, has been an area of much debate. Either way, it does not take away from the richness of this story, or the value it has continued to provide the Church and her readers through the millennia.

To begin with, we notice that Peter and the disciples are going fishing and it is not all of the disciples, they are seven in number. The number seven, often represents a fullness, like the number of days in a week; so it may represent the total number of disciples in its fullness. Yet, what we are told is that this community of disciples are going fishing. So they get into a boat and they are out all night and have caught nothing. The first thing we should be aware of is that any time we see the disciples in a boat, we can associate what they are doing with the Church. After they have been out all night, who do they see but a figure on the shore, in the early morning hours while it is dawn. Darkness is giving way to light! It is from this view that a voice is heard calling out from the shore, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They are then instructed to cast their net over the right side of the boat and they are not able to pull the catch into the boat.

What I find interesting about this segment of the story, is that the disciples could not catch a single thing on their own. And yet, with just a little instruction from Jesus, they are not able to pull the size of their catch into the boat. And so it is with the church down through the ages. Whenever she has decided to go out on her own, she catches very little if anything. Yet, if Jesus is leading Her, Her success is manifold and so is the beauty of reading from The Acts of the Apostles at this time of the year. We hear about all of the early churches struggles and successes. And so, should it be any different for us?

-Fr. Chris

The Liturgy Committee would like to teach us about the Saints of the day and special feast days:

Sunday: Third Sunday of Easter
Monday: St. Stanislaus
Wednesday: St. Martin I

Jubilee Year of Mercy: As we continue our celebration of the Easter season, let us remember that God's Mercy continues for ever. Please take a moment to stop by the information table near the courtyard for some great resources. This week we have added the third article in the series "Loved Forever: A guide to Living the Year of Mercy." This article focuses on instructing the ignorant, the second spiritual work of mercy.

From the Holy Father's General Audience: 4/6/16

Dear Brothers and Sisters: today I wish to reflect on God's mercy fulfilled in Jesus, who is mercy incarnate. In every moment of his earthly life, Jesus made mercy visible: meeting the crowds, announcing the Gospel, healing the sick, drawing close to the forgotten, pardoning sinners. He showed a love open to all, a love which was fulfilled on the cross. His mission of mercy began in humble surroundings at the Jordan, where he stood in line with sinners to be baptized by John. The Father confirmed this mission at Jesus' Baptism when he sent the Holy Spirit upon him and said: "You are my beloved son; with you I am well pleased" (Mk 1:11). We can contemplate this mystery by gazing upon the cross, for there Jesus offered to the Father the sin of the world, our sins. From the cross, Jesus shows us that no one is excluded from God's merciful love: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do" (Lk 23:34). We should, therefore, never fear to acknowledge and confess our sins, for the sacrament of Reconciliation offers us the forgiveness which flows from the cross and which renews us in his grace. In this Jubilee Year, let us embrace the Gospel with greater vigor and be heralds of the Father's mercy and forgiveness.
